"THE RADIO KING"
Universal Chapter Play
Starring ROY STEWART
#4 "Warned by Radio"

Lane dons insulated gloves and effects his escape, hurrying to the Department of Justice, where he reveals all he has learned concerning the plot of the terrorists. He later sees the band arrive at a radio broadcasting station, intending to seize it by force. He radios to Jimmy to bring him his Static Magnifier, an invention of his own, whereby Lane can "jam the air" with static, thus nullifying and preventing wireless communication.

Jimmy starts to bring the invention to Lane, but is followed by the Mystery Man. Lane arrives at the broadcasting station, where he is overpowered by Marnee's henchmen. Jimmy is knocked unconscious by an automobile and falls into the hands of his pursuer. Meanwhile, in Marnee's den, a masked interloper smashes the wax disc containing Leyden's secret for recalling "lost messages" from the air.
